Jessica Harmon

Jessica Harmon stars in her upcoming feature film, 'Passions Web', which is scheduled to premier April 1st at 8:00pm on the Lifetime Network in the US under the title of 'Uncaged Heart'. 'Passions Web', directed by her father Allan Harmon was filmed in Vancouver. The cast includes Julie Warner (Nip & Tuck) who plays Jessica's sister and Sebastian Spence. The worldwide release of 'Passions Web' is the first project Jessica and her father have worked on together.

In 'Passions Web', Jessica plays Lynn, a mid twenties business women, who's older sister and single mother Janet (Julie Warner), is living a loveless life working as the resident shrink at a prison. Lynn tries to encourage her sister back into the dating scene until Janet gives in and becomes involved with one of her prisoner patients (Sebastian Spence), and things take a turn for the worst.

Most recently, Jessica finished filming a supporting lead role in the feature film "Black Christmas" directed by Glen Morgan, alongside Andrea Martin (SCTV), Michelle Trachtenberg (Six Feet Under), and Lacey Chabert (Party of Five), which premiered in theatres Christmas 2006.
